Cliché: A phrase or opinion that is overused and betrays a lack of original thought

Romans 8

"There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus"

"And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him."

"If God is for us, who can be against us?"

"Nothing can separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

"I love you"

Cliché or not?

Rom. 8:31 What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us?

Rom. 8:32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all — how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

Rom. 8:33-34 Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died — more than that, who was raised to life — is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

Rom. 8:35a Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

Rom. 8:35b Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?

Rom. 8:36 As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

Rom. 8:37 No, in all these things
we are more than conquerors
through him who loved us.

Is. 46:10 I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say: My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please.

Rom. 8:38-39 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

8:1 "There is no condemnation"

8:39 "There will be no separation"

Convinced

Rom. 8:31-39 What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all — how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died — more than that, who was raised to life — is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.” No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
