“Both I observed in my meaningless life: There is a righteous person perishing in his righteousness, and there is a wicked person living long in his evil.”

Ecc. 7:15

There is a time for everything,
and a season for every activity under heaven:
a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain,
a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

Ecc. 3:1-8

What does the worker gain from his toil?

Ecc. 3:9

I have seen the burden God has laid on men.

Ecc. 3:10

He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the hearts of men; yet they cannot fathom what God has done from beginning to end.

Ecc. 3:11

1. Life is confusing

2. God knows how it all works together

3. We are hard-wired for purpose...but we can't see how it all works together.

“Christ is the wisdom and power of God...”
1 Corinthians 1:24

“God demonstrates his own love for us in this, while we were sinners Christ died for us.”

Romans 5:8

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and strength and love your neighbor as yourself.”

Matthew 22:37

“And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.”

Romans 8:28
