

“How good and pleasant it is when God’s people live together in unity!”

Psalms 133:3

“It is grace, nothing but grace, that we are allowed to live in community with other Christians.”

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Today, my prayer is that we would remember to treasure the church gathered in visible worship

-and-

That we would learn to bloom in whatever church God has blessed us to be planted in

Worship is not an event to watch it is participation in the body of Christ

“Every human wish dream that is injected into the Christian community is a hindrance to genuine community.”

Bonhoeffer

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Hebrews 10:19-25

1. We have confidence because of the facts of the gospel (verse 22)

1. We have confidence because of the facts of the gospel:

a. We come with a sincere heart

b. We come with full assurance of faith

c. We come with a clear conscience

2. We can have confidence because God is the author of the gospel (verse 23)

3. Our confidence shows up in actions toward one another (verse 24)

“Consider how to spur one another on toward love and good deeds.”

Landing Point:

“Let us not give up meeting together as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.”

Hebrews 10:25
